

The FCC should not do anything that would lessen the protection of the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. It has made a difference in our time at home. We have in the past received 5 - 10 calls a week. We feel it is our right not to be subjected to the many calls from rude people at the worst times.